

USE OF SECLUSION AND RESTRAINT WITH STUDENTS

Every effort must be made to prevent the need to restrain or place students in seclusion. However, Western Wayne Schools recognizes that at times it may become necessary for employees to use restraints and/or seclusion when there is an imminent risk of serious physical harm to the student or others. Restraint or seclusion should not be used as a means of punishment or convenience.

A supportive school environment can greatly reduce, and in many cases eliminate, the need for restraint or seclusion. School staff should model professionalism when a student is escalated and exhibiting dangerous behavior while attempting to meet the student's needs. The Corporation will use prevention, positive behavioral intervention and support, conflict de-escalation, and crisis intervention training to eliminate or minimize the need for use of restraint or seclusion.

This Policy applies to all students, not only students with disabilities.

Law enforcement officers, including School Resource Officers (SROs) will follow their own procedures and training if it becomes necessary to restrain or hold a student in seclusion.

The Superintendent or his or her designee shall develop administrative guidelines and a Restraint and Seclusion Plan to effectuate this Policy.
