

Required Annual Notices under Federal Law Effective October 1, 2024 and Indiana Law
Effective July 1, 2025

Several federal and state statutes require school corporations and/or local educational agencies (LEAs) to give certain notices periodically to parents, students, community members, and/or the governing body. This list is meant to serve as a reference guide; it does not contain specific language required in the notice or the time and manner of the requirements (see specific statutes in footnotes for further detail). It will be updated later in the fall when the federal fiscal year updates are available. Also note that these notices do not necessarily have to be in policy or student handbook and can be provided in different ways:

1. Anti-Bullying (must be part of discipline rules and have link to resources posted on website).<sup>1</sup>
2. Anti-Harassment/Non-Discrimination.<sup>2</sup>
3. Asbestos.<sup>3</sup>
4. ~~Criminal Organizations Policy posting~~.<sup>4</sup>
5. Discipline: Suspension/Expulsion Procedures.<sup>5</sup>
6. FERPA/Records/Directory Information.<sup>6</sup>
7. Free and Reduced Lunch Eligibility Criteria.<sup>7</sup>
8. For parents of children with disabilities, a copy of procedural safeguards (under IDEA and Section 504).<sup>8</sup>
9. Indoor Air Quality (IAQ) Coordinator's contact information.<sup>9</sup>
10. Local School Wellness Policy (required if participating in National School Lunch program or similar programs),<sup>10</sup> including notification of the
